

Bluecoat Reads - Reading Log

We hope that you continue to enjoy reading and look forward to hearing about what you have been reading. As you read you may want to complete the reading log below.

We always love to hear what you are reading and what you think about it. Keeping a log as you read may help you to make predictions, summarise your reading, seek clarification and find answers to any questions when you discuss your books with us.

You may want to record vocabulary - either words that you don't understand or words that you want to use in your own writing.

You may want to record your thinking after every chapter.
You may want to record your thinking after several chapters.

You don't have to make really detailed notes, but some ideas to help you remember may be useful.

Most of all, we want you to enjoy books and enjoy reading.

My book title:

Interesting vocabulary that I might magpie (borrow and use in my own writing):

What I've read	My prediction What will happen? What evidence do I have?	Clarification & Questions What don't I understand? What questions do I have?	My summary What happened? What were the key events?
